Gold Parachuting Medal of the FAI

Dear Mr. Bishop,

The German Aero Club nominates for the Gold Parachuting Medal of the FAI Dr. Dieter Strüber.

Dieter Strüber is a symbolic figure in the German and international Parachuting Scene. With his ideas, his sporting success and ability to integrate, he personifies in a special kind the idea of friendship and sportsmanship among nations, for which he was responsible and active in both German states.

Strüber has been a successful sportsman at many national and international championships, five times world record owner and excellent trainer of the German female national team from 1963-1973 and from 1997-2002.

At eight world championships the women he coached won 10 gold, silver and bronze medals.

At six world championships and (twice as a chief judge) six world cups (three times as a chief judge) he gained international recognition as a FAI-judge.

Sincerely

Daniel Domheim
