NOTE! Accommodation for accompanying persons is included into the entry fee and will be provided by the organiser. Not all the accompanying persons visiting the DZ Tanay will have the same accommodation as competitors. Because of the number of rooms is limited, competitors will be accommodated in priority. Accommodation Assignments will be started after the preliminary registration data has been received and based on:

- NAC first,
- number of registered competitors per NAC second
- continuing to apply the above method until the contingent of places is full.

Accompanying persons are responsible for their own insurance during their stay.

10. EQUIPMENT

Each participant is responsible for the good condition of his/her equipment (Sporting Code, Section 5, 5.1.1 [1]). The Organiser has no responsibility in this regard; the responsibility rests fully with the Delegation and competitor. Registration will be taken as a declaration by the Delegation and competitor that the parachuting equipment to be used is certified as being airworthy by competent authorities.

All equipment must receive an inspection and approval by the Meet Director, Chief Judge or his/her delegate prior to competition participation.

This includes but is not limited to:

- Both the main and reserve canopies must be ram-air type.
- All parachuting jumping equipment except when used in CF and CP must be fitted with a serviceable AAD and must be switched on for all jumps unless informed otherwise by FPS of Russia Operational Regulations.
- All participants in CF events must carry a hook knife.
- A rigid type helmet must be worn by all participants who do not hold the equivalent of a FAI International Certificate Category 3 (SC 5, 2.4 (4)) on all jumps.
- All participants in AE, SP and VFS events must wear a functioning audible altimeter.
- All equipment used in Speed Skydiving may be subject to weighing prior to each round.
